

Perinatal Quality Collaborative of North Carolina

Mission: Provide the facilitation, support, and education necessary to identify and deliver evidence-based care for pregnant women with substance use disorder.

Aim: Working with perinatal quality improvement teams and participating prenatal care clinics, 100% of pregnant women receiving prenatal care will be screened for substance use disorder using equitable and evidence-based universal verbal or written screening tools.

Primary Aim	Primary Drivers	Secondary Drivers
1. Screening and Referral for Assessment/ Treatment	1.1 Screening 1.2 Referral to treatment	1.1.1 Select and utilize validated screening tool with SBIRT approach 1.1.2 Screen 100% of pregnant women for substance use 1.2.1 Map local resources 1.2.2 Utilize established path for referral for SUD assessment/ treatment
Secondary Aims	Primary Drivers	Secondary Drivers
2. Optimizing Care	2.1 Develop protocols to optimize care	2.1.1 Develop protocols for universal verbal screening - how to introduce, implement 2.1.2 Develop protocols for referral to SUD assessment and/or treatment
3. Providing Education	3.1 Provider education	3.1.1 Develop and implement Staff/Provider Trainings on screening with validated tool 3.1.2 Develop and implement Staff/Provider Trainings on referral to SUD assessment and/or treatment